

LUXE.TODAY PLAYER

SUBJECT BY SUBJECT

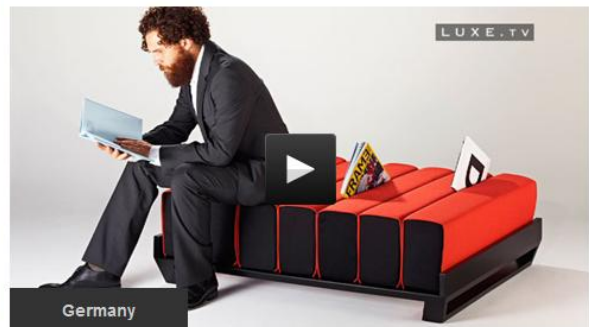

Gold and South Sea pearls for the new collection Yvel

Here are some collections from Israeli jeweler YVEL. Founded in 1986 by Orna and Isaac Levy, YVEL is an international luxury jewelry brand. Yvel's collections of pears and precious stones can be found in the finest stores around the world. The latest collection includes a line featuring gold and South Sea pearls. The "Sea Satin" range combines warmer shades of South Sea pearls with satin finish yellow gold. The emphasis on gold accents rather than diamonds creates pieces that are wearable every day. The new collection includes large oval chains alternating rough diamonds and pearls. These

Polish cuisine slowly reborn

Piotr Rutkowski grows his own vegetables! Everything is organically grown at this farm-located 80 km from Warsaw - and most of the work is done by hand. When the Rutkowski family began organic farming 15 years ago they could only sell a few lettuce leaves. Today, they grow all kinds of vegetables and plants on their 6 hectare farm. Warsaw is increasingly endorsing the "slow food" movement which traditional cuisine based on natural products, turning its back on the fast food fad. Despite competition from large stores, organic markets are increasing in number in the Polish capital. These

Natascha-Harra Frischkorn: when design is adapted to the user

Young German designer Natascha Harra-Frischkorn belongs to the collective Cargo and imagines things that pushes the notion of function to its highest height. An example with her surprising shelf called "Chuck" that adapts to the needs of the user thanks to its 6 wood planks that adjusts to hold books and other objects. The "Strip" lamp is an extraordinary lamp. Inspired by a poem by Dagmar Scherf, its shade detaches in a coiled like second skin giving the light a transparent effect. Recently, Natascha Harra-Frischkorn created an original chair called "Sushi". Made of various plastics glued to one