TOKYO BLUE

June 11 – 12 * Alexis Bistro Ampang

Music lovers will be delighted by the sounds of Tokyo Blue, a young trio offering sweet melodies with a funky rhythm section. The group, heavily influenced by international artistes and composers including Hiromi Uehara, Avishai Cohen, Marcus Miller, Joe Hisaishi and more, is constantly pushing its limits to jazz writing while still keeping the songs melodious. Formed in 2008 by bassist Hiroaki Maekawa, pianist Ywenna Carollin and drummer Joshua Maran with the goal of composing and performing original instrumental music, it has since adopted a distinct sound featuring the deep baritones of the bass guitar, the aggressive yet sensitive keys of the piano and the rock solid beats of the drums. Tokyo Blue's music has essences of jazz, fusion, Latin, progressive rock and even film music. Admission for the show is free and it begins at 10.30pm. Table reservations are for diners only. For more information, call 03 4260 2288 or log on to www.alexis.com.my.
